Wethrive! In reading community city school district

Throughout the 2023–2024 school year the Reading Community City School District team launched new afterschool clubs ranging from an elementary running club to an engineering club for high school junior and senior students. Additionally, Reading Community City Schools celebrated staff in new and creative ways! The team met monthly throughout the school year.

Reading Community City School District is excited to continue their impactful work and explore new initiatives in the coming year.
